25X1

1. On 21 July 1952, thirty-seven Chinese Communist military cadre members of division (shih, 1597) grade or above entrained in Peiping for the USSR via the Northeast. All have had over 14 years of service in the Chinese Communist Party and have gained recognition for distinguished service against the Japanese, Nationalist, or UN forces. The group consisted of the following:
 - a. Two army (chun, 6511) commanders or chiefs or deputy chiefs of staff on the army level.
 - b. Five division commanders or deputy division commanders.
 - c. Fourteen chiefs or deputy chiefs of staff on the division level.
 - d. Three bureau directors of field army level.
 - e. Seven division commanders or division chiefs of staff for specialized troops.
2. The cadre members will remain in the USSR for one year, receiving training at the Red Army University, Moscow, or at the Staff Officers' College, Kiev.
